

Spoiled Materials Blanket Disclaimer

Company Name

Contact

Every effort will be made to produce high quality finished materials with a minimum of spoilage and/or distortion. However since mounting and laminating are irreversible and imperfect procedures, a small margin for failure must be factored into the process.

Gall Laminating Company will not bear liability for the value or the replacement cost of materials submitted for finishing. A sufficient number of extras should be submitted to achieve the desired quality.

WE DO NOT RECOMMEND MOUNTING OR LAMINATING IRREPLACEABLE OR ONE OF A KIND MATERIALS.

Please sign below to indicate you have read and understand our Spoiled Materials Disclaimer. This disclaimer will apply to all future jobs sent to us from your company.
